Before the child is seven or eight years old he gains quite a bit of notoriety as a prophet this does not usually get quite this far the parents may become very strict but never the less however restricted or hushed up the child gains some notoriety and is known throughout his neighborhood or community and is often listened to when he speaks

Now let s go into detail and show you how this works it gets quite intriguing the fourth plane consciousness is positive it is a mind detail consciousness and is pictured as a firm consciousness the consciousness carried about by the human body is a negative consciousness and is of detail mind you can see from the above description that they are opposite consciousnesses this is why the fourth plane consciousness can hook on very firmly to the third plane consciousness or can even use the third plane body temporarily the fourth plane body is not involved here just the consciousness so it can switch its allegiance and take over the third plane body quite freely oftentimes this child will go into a trance or semi trance or his eyes will roll back so to speak when he is speaking these things he may go completely unconscious and speak these words aloud which means that the fourth plane consciousness has taken over completely the third plane body of consciousness and the third plane body when this happens energy is usually drawn from people nearby the people who are listening to this are put very much in accord with what is being done or said and they can feel the authenticity of it or even feel that they are somewhat inferior people ignorant people will think that god has spoken to them or is speaking in the vicinity of the person speaking who is now entranced they may feel that god has spoken to or through them those things happen in some instances So when the message is over the person regains consciousness and cannot describe what happened cannot tell what has transpired during his unconsciousness or at least has no cognizance of the true meaning of what was said or happening so as we observe this individual through life his ability to give these prophecies words of warning mysteries or whatever you want to call them is becoming a bit easier they can tell when the messages or prophecies are coming they participate very readily in the transmittal of the messages and can survive the fact very easily these people grow up and are known as trance mediums phenomena or one thing or another Now the fact that they don t speak the truth all the time doesn t phase anyone too much the person doesn t have any control over what he is doing so he is really not blamed for the inaccuracy the method or manner in which these messages are given to the large numbers of people that follow him all such individuals do get quite a bit of notoriety a following so to speak or many fans they often break into print in one way or another and everyone seems to be rather happy
